Organization

Worthington Country Club was established in 1991, turned over to the members in 1994, and consists of 799 homes. Worthington Country Club is a member-owned, bundled community located in Bonita Springs, FL. It is conveniently located to SW Florida Airport as well as the beautiful Gulf of Mexico beaches. The Club supports an active Florida lifestyle and features a well-maintained and diverse collection of neighborhoods with the centerpiece being the recently renovated Ron Garl designed golf course. The course offers both playability and challenge for players of all abilities.

There are five Har Tru tennis courts and a well-appointed Activity Center, which includes complete exercise and workout areas. Club Members enjoy both casual and fine dining in the beautiful clubhouse and casual dining is also available in the outdoor cabana. Worthington has a vast and varied calendar of activities in all areas of the club, including dancing, hobbies, and water aerobics in the swimming pool. The Club uses Jonas as the accounting system.
